For more than two decades of visionary leadership and unwavering commitment to the Denver Art Museum and cultural institutions across Denver.

Join us at Collectors' Choice 44 for an unforgettable evening recognizing our honorees, Judi and Robert Newman, whose extraordinary generosity have shaped and enriched Denver's cultural landscape. Through their enduring commitment to the arts, education, and our community, the Newmans have opened doors to discovery, creativity, and expanded access to arts and culture. Their generosity continues to inspire generation through the many remarkable programs and spaces that bear their names including at: the Denver Art Museum, the University of Denver, the DCPA, and the Denver Botanic Gardens. Together, these cultural landmarks they have supported stand as a living legacy of their philanthropy, creating places where art inspires us, live performances move us, ideas spark curiosity, and communities come together.

At the Denver Art Museum, the Robert and Judi Newman Family Foundation Studio has become a cornerstone of the museum's efforts to provide immersive artmaking experiences for visitors of all ages. This dynamic space hosts public programs, weekend artist demonstrations, and hands-on activities inspired by the collection and special exhibitions that inspire creativity and make meaningful artistic experiences accessible to our entire community. The Newmans have also generously supported various museum campaigns, and their gifts have been recognized in spaces such as the Newman Ellipse and the Newman Overlook where gatherings of school groups, community partners, and event guests take place.

This dazzling black-tie event will feature lively entertainment, a sumptuous dinner, and an inspired program celebrating the Newmans and the extraordinary impact of their generosity. Funds raised through Collectors' Choice 44 will support the Denver Art Museum's vibrant exhibitions and programs, helping ensure that the power of art remains accessible to all.
