

Art and our World Printable Journal Page

Go outside, this could be a city block, a school yard, a back yard or even a park. Use this journal page to guide your exploration and search for interesting natural imperfections. Add examples of natural imperfections you notice along your route in the call out circles surrounding the map. Then connect your circles to your route.

(i.e. A knot in a tree, a funny shaped rock, a butterfly missing part of its wing).

Note/Sketch:

Whats interesting about it:

This tree knot has so dark in color that it caught my eye. The shape reminds me of an alien.
