

DESIGN AS A BRIDGE BETWEEN ART FORM AND FUNCTION

Design not only solves a problem but it looks good doing it. Decisions that affect how an object looks are often equally important to designers. Where do you see elements of function in these artworks? Where do you see elements of beauty/aesthetics?

Find three artworks that interest you: Draw the object inside the lightbulb.

What parts of this object might be informed by its function/ the needs of its user?

What parts of this object might be an aesthetic choice, (informed by how it looks)?
