

COLLECTORS' CHOICE 43

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 2025 | 6:00PM

HONORING

Vicki and Kent Logan

for 25 years of visionary leadership and extraordinary contributions to the Denver Art Museum

Join us at Collectors' Choice 43 for a memorable evening recognizing the transformational support of Vicki and Kent Logan. This glamorous black-tie evening will feature an array of entertainment, a dazzling dinner, and an exciting program celebrating the Logan's profound impact on the museum and Denver's larger contemporary art community.

Modern and Contemporary Art at the Denver Art Museum

Since its founding in 1978, the department of modern and contemporary art has grown from fledgling roots into a collection of more than 7,000 artworks made between 1900 and today. In 2000, internationally prominent contemporary art collectors Vicki and Kent Logan established a relationship with the Denver Art Museum. A year later, the Logans gave the single largest donation in the history of the museum's modern and contemporary art department. The outstanding collection reflects the Logans' global perspective and represent some of the most exciting and groundbreaking work created in the 1990s and early twenty-first century.

For more than two decades, the Logans' gifts and loans have inspired and enriched many exhibitions at the Denver Art Museum including Radar: Selections from the Collection of Vicki and Kent Logan (2006), Focus the Figure (2008), Material World (2013), Showing Off: Recent Modern & Contemporary Acquisitions (2015), Disruption: Works from the Vicki and Kent Logan Collection (2023) as well as survey shows of Dana Schutz (2012), Fritz Scholder (2015), Virgil Ortiz (2015), and Kent Monkman (2025). In addition, their longstanding support of the Logan Lecture Series, has enabled the Denver Art Museum to present in-depth talks by over 120 world-class contemporary artists, inspiring a dynamic exchange of ideas with the ever-growing and evolving Denver art community.

Funds raised through Collectors' Choice 43 will benefit the museum's exhibitions & programs.
