Untitled #54 (Turf)
February 22, 6–10 p.m.
In February, Untitled celebrates the exhibition Georgia O’Keeffe in New Mexico: Architecture, Katsinam, and the Land with a look at the significance of place in artists’ lives. Artist Nick Cave will give local dancers a chance to strut their stuff in open auditions to be part of summer programming related to his exhibition Nick Cave: Sojourn.

Untitled is included with general admission to the museum, which is two-for-one with valid student ID during the event. Be prepared for a dose of unexpected. Details at www.denverartmuseum.org.

Studio Course
Our four-session course is $75 for DAM members and $85 for nonmembers. Registration begins January 15 at 10 a.m. for DAM members and January 22 at 10 a.m. for nonmembers. Register online at www.denverartmuseum.org or call 720-913-0130.

Georgia O’Keeffe: A Life Shaped by the Southwest
Take a closer look at how place, from its landscape to its unique cultures, can shape an artist in this four part course celebrating Georgia O’Keeffe. In the first session, DAM master teacher for western American art, Molly Medakovich, lays the foundation for understanding O’Keeffe as an artist, from her signature style to her life in New York before and after discovering New Mexico. Next, DAM curator of western American art Thomas Smith delves into how New Mexico was a source of artistic inspiration, both for O’Keeffe and other artists of her time. In the third session, John Lukavic, associate curator of Native arts, shares the stories behind the cultural influences in O’Keeffe’s artwork, including the Hopi katsinas, sometimes called kachinas, portrayed in the exhibition Georgia O’Keeffe in New Mexico: Architecture, Katsinam, and the Land. The final session offers a glimpse at the intersection of O’Keeffe and modernist photography of the southwest with DAM curator of photography Eric Paddock.

Saturdays, February 23–March 16, 1–2:30 p.m.

Family Activity Menu

Spring Break
March 25–29, 2013
Spend the school-free days at the museum. During the week of spring break, there will be artist demonstrations, family tours and art-making stations throughout the museum. Paint Studio, Family Activity Cart, Create-n-Takes and the Just for Fun Center are out and open every day. Kids 18 and younger receive free general admission.

Just For Fun Center and Kids Corner
Imagine museum artworks come to life in the Just for Fun Center and Kids Corner. Visitors can discover animal costumes—bats, alligators and jaguars inspired by the pre-Columbian art collection—a doll house designed to mimic the museum’s buildings, where playing with the art is okay and mask-making art projects. There are numerous activities for the entire family to check out every day the museum is open.

Check-Out Activities
Families can check out Family Backpacks and Art Tubes for an in-gallery adventure inspired by the masters. Find the Family Activity Cart out and open on weekends and during spring break.

CelebrARTE
On the third Sunday of every month, experience a family-focused, bilingual program called CelebrARTE from 1–4 p.m. Focusing on the art and creativity of Latino artists, cultures and experiences, the monthly program will provide bilingual and intergenerational activities for the entire family. Included in museum admission, CelebrARTE is free for DAM members.
Totspot Sunday
Families with toddlers are invited to join us for our new program featuring kid-friendly programming on the second Sunday of each month.

Create-n-Takes
Create-n-Takes are in-gallery activities that inspire our visitors to roll up their sleeves and get creative. Create-n-Takes are open on weekends and over spring break. Look for the Create-n-Takes sign, or ask for locations at the welcome desk.

Create Playdate: Stomp
February 13, 2013, 10 a.m.–1 p.m.
Drop in on the second Wednesday of the month with your little ones, ages 3 to 5. Stomp and tromp like a horse and create art that comes to life. Meet up with other tots and their grown-ups for art-making and story time in the galleries.

Create Playdate: Roam
April 10, 2013, 10 a.m.–1 p.m.
Drop in on the second Wednesday of the month with your little ones ages 3-5. On April 10, Roam the landscape of New Mexico by Georgia O'Keeffe. Hear a story in the gallery and make your very own landscape with other tots and their grown-ups.

Member Programming

Member Preview
February 9, 10 a.m.–5 p.m.
Museum members have the opportunity to see the exhibition before it opens to the general public during this exclusive members-only day. Docents will be stationed in the gallery to answer questions and members will receive special discounts in the Museum Shop.

Group Tickets
Group discounts are available on orders of 10 or more tickets purchased at one time. For information on group tickets, interested parties should contact Heidi Weisman at groupsales@denverartmuseum.org or 720-913-0111.
