YVES SAINT LAURENT EXHIBITION BRINGS HIGH FASHION TO THE MILE HIGH CITY
VIP Hotel Packages Available At Luxury Hotels

Organized thematically, the presentation melds design and art to explore the full arc of Saint Laurent’s career, from his first days at Dior in 1958 through the splendor of his final runway collection in 2002. Highlights include among others:

- The Gender Revolution galleries, where visitors will see how Saint Laurent bent (and sometimes broke) the rules of what women were expected to wear crafting the wardrobe for today’s modern woman;
- The Yves Saint Laurent and Women section, displaying the clothing of the historic women who wore and supported Saint Laurent, including Catherine Deneuve, Princess Grace of Monaco, and Paloma Picasso;
- The Last Ball section, featuring exquisite evening dresses from the glory days of haute couture complete with a red carpet;
- and the Colors of Yves Saint Laurent gallery, where guests will enjoy vibrant examples from his collections and hundreds of fabric samples.
